

Harcourt

Language

Class

English is the universal and the most important language in today's world. At FGIS we are taking an extra effort to teach our students better English by introducing Harcourt English Language Classes.

Harcourt books provide an extensive variety to teach English in a simpler way by adjusting to different grade levels.

Following are a few examples:

Tells about the past.

Some verbs do not show actions. They show that something belongs to someone.

Have

Has

Had

English is the international language of diplomacy, business, science, technology, banking, computing, etc.... We hope that our students will be ready to face the challenges offered by the world in the future very positively and effectively.

